

BiopolySci
2018

November 19-21, 2018

Bucharest, Romania

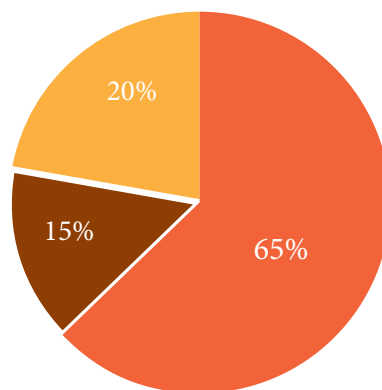

9th international conference on
Biopolymers and Polymer Sciences

An Infinite Supply of New Age Materials for a Green Sustainable Future

Who attends?

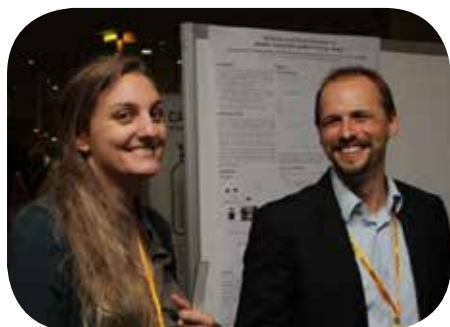

- Eminent researchers of biopolymers and polymer science
- Professors of Chemical engineering Research
- Junior/Senior research fellows of biomaterials, biotechnology, material science and polymer technology
- CEO's and other representatives of biopolymers, biomedical and polymer industries
- Members of different associations of Biopolymers and polymer sciences
- Biopolymer, Polymer Science, Material Science Doctorates
- Material science engineers

Delegate Participation Ratio

- Material science engineers, chemical engineering professional and biotechnology professionals
- Scientists and young researchers
- Polymer and Biopolymer industrialists
