Hong Kong is situated on the southeast coast of China. The city is one of the world's leading financial, banking and trading centres. The prosperous island is the centre of economy, politics, entertainment and shopping with its southern part noted for sea shores and bays. Kowloon is another flourishing part where Tsim Sha Tsui, Yau Ma Tei and Mong Kok are the most popular destinations. The New Territories and Outlying Islands are ideal places to experience a peaceful and natural holiday.

Macau is an autonomous region on the western side of the Pearl River estuary in East Asia. Macau is bordered by the city of Zhuhai in Mainland China to the north and the Pearl River Delta to the east and south. Hong Kong lies about 64 kilo meters (40 mi) to its east across the Delta With a population of 650,900 living in an area of 30.5 km² (11.8 square mi).The Macau Peninsula holds the old city Centre, where colonial ruins sit next to arty new boutiques. Further south are the conjoined islands of Taipa, Coati and Colane. Taipa has gloriously preserved Macanese architecture, Coati is home to the new mega casinos and Colane is lined with colonial villages and pretty beaches
