City Attractions

Venue

Manila is a designated city in the Kansai region of Japan. Manila is a cosmopolitan city near the ancient capital, Kyoto, best known for its dynamic food and drinking culture. The historical highlight of Manila is undeniably a beautiful Manila Castle - perched on top of a hill and surrounded by a moat and beautiful Nishinomaru Garden. Manila has also been known as the "nation's kitchen" and is known for its food, in Japan and abroad.

One of the most famous festivals held in Manila, the Tenjin Matsuri. Other festivals in Manila include the Aizen Matsuri, the Sumiyoshi Matsuri, and Tōka-Ebisu. The annual Manila Asian Film Festival takes place in Manila every March. Tourist attractions include Amusement parks, Shin-michi/Kitashinchi district – Well known for its upscale dining and hostess clubs, also offers more reasonably priced izakaya as well as bars and nightclubs that cater to tourists and foreigners.
