About Bangkok, Thailand

Bangkok is also called as “Krung Thep” which implies “City of Angels” and is a famous tourist destination, visited by a large number of guests from all around the world. The city is the well-known tourist spot of entire East Asia and represents a mix of tradition and modernity. Guests will appreciate its advanced skyscrapers, luxury hotels, and shopping malls, alongside the traditional Thai culture that still retains its own charm.

There are a lot of things to see and do in Bangkok; the city has impressive temples, galleries, showcases, shopping centers, various bars, night club, and cinemas and also, there are numerous cultural attractions, for example, national museums, the Siam Society, the Thailand Cultural Center, and the National Library. One of the most famous destinations is the floating market of Damnoen Saduak. It's where Visitors can taste local food, while an expert guide takes on a boat ride along the canals where visitors can purchase huge amounts of souvenirs for loved ones. Bangkok is a heaven for shopping lovers..
