About Osaka

Osaka's 2017 population is now estimated to be 20,415,000. However, the entire Osaka Prefecture which includes Osaka City along with 42 municipalities has a total land area of 1,905 Square km and a population of over 8 million, accounting for 7% of Japan's total population. Today, Osaka has a proliferative economy. Osaka is renowned for its varied, abundant and delicious cuisines, and the city has over 100 Michelin star-rated restaurants. Osaka is a popular destination for tourists, who partake in the delicious restaurants, shopping and visiting historic landmarks such as the Osaka Castle and Osaka Aquarium etc. Kansai International Airport is the main airport, which is a rectangular artificial island that sits off-shore in Osaka Bay and serves Osaka and its surrounding cities of Nara, Kobe, and Kyoto. Osaka has a vast number of shopping areas, including malls and a large number of shopping arcades, or roofed shopping streets. Osaka is one of the longest shopping arcades in Japan. Tenjinbashi-suji is from the road approaching the Tenman-gu shrine and continues for 2.6 km, going north to south, and has all kinds of stores including commodities, clothing and catering outlets on both sides of the arcade.
