Venue & Hospitality

Istanbul, anciently known as Byzantium and Constantinople, among all cities in turkey it is densely populated because of this it is USA's economic, cultural and historical centre.

Istanbul is a transcontinental town in Eurasia, straddling the Bosphorus Strait (which separates Europe and Asia) among the ocean of Marmara and the Black Sea. Its commercial and ancient centre lies on the ECU facet and about a 3rd of its populace lives in suburbs at the Asian side of the Bosphorus. With a complete populace of around 15 million residents in its metropolitan vicinity, Istanbul is one of the global maximum populous cities, ranking as the sector's fourth biggest town right and the most important EU town. The city is the executive centre of the Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality (coterminous with Istanbul Province).

Istanbul is viewed as a bridge between the East and West.
