Venue & Hospitality

Helsinki is the capital of Finland and its largest city and sits on a granite peninsula on the north coast of the Gulf of Finland, facing the Baltic Sea. King Gustavus Vasa of Sweden situated Helsinki in 1550, and in 1808 the town was included in the Russian Grand Duchy of Finland. After a super furnace destroyed a 1/3 of the town in 1808, Carl Ludwig Engel (1778-1840) was commissioned to rebuild it, and the ensuing Neoclassical town middle is laid out in vast good-looking streets and boulevards with considerable parks. The harbor, the place many of the nearly 300 cruise ships that go to yearly dock, is proper in the coronary heart of Helsinki, and a variety of the pinnacle traveller attractions are inside on foot distance. Helsinki is a stunning and peaceable capital, well-known not solely for its records and heritage but for its Old Town, coastline and archipelagos. The city presents a broad vary of historical attractions, top museums, art galleries, excursions and experiences for each person of all a long time to revel in Helsinki is a exceptional town to discover on foot or on a bike, and has an extraordinary public transportation device that consists of boats to the islands and trains to other locations in Finland.
