ABOUT AUCKLAND

Auckland is around 2 large harbours and a major city in the north of New Zealand's North Island. In the center, of the iconic Sky Tower, It has views of Viaduct Harbour, which is full of super yachts and lined with bars and along cafes. Auckland is largest city and main transport hub.

At the Auckland Domain, the city's oldest park is around an extinct volcano and home to the formal Winter gardens. Near to Downtown, Mission Bay Beach has a seaside promenade. Auckland is situated between two harbors and is often referred to as the "City of Sails" due to the abundance of water sports and access to beaches and the sea. Actual meaning of Auckland is "Tāmaki with a hundred lovers", in reference to the desirability of its fertile land at the hub of waterways in all directions.

The nickname of Auckland will also call "City of Sails". The Sky Tower is now presently the tallest structure in the Southern Hemisphere. The city's oldest park is the Auckland Domain. All of which adds up to one big, bustling, cosmopolitan and vibrant place.

Because of its unique geographic condition staying here means you can enjoy the benefits of a large city with a wide variety rang of cafés, restaurants and bars, excellent theatres, galleries and museums are close to stunning natural landscapes, beautiful beaches and nature walks.

More than a city, Auckland is a whole region full of things to see and enjoy. Best of all, with so many experiences and from one adventure to the next.
