About Las Vegas

The city that never sleeps is how it is known as. Las Vegas in the state of Nevada, US is the largest metropolitan in the greater Mojave desert. It makes a mark for housing the best casinos and night clubs of the world. This renowned resort city has a history of gambling, literature and culture that makes it distinct and most cherished place to visit. It is a strategic location for financial, commercial and cultural confluence. Billed as the Entertainment capital of the world, this city houses a lot of sites for the tourists. The Nevada Test site and its effect on the city can be visualized by visiting Atomic Testing Museum. An 8,000 square foot exhibit hall with artifacts from the Smithsonian Institution, Lawrence Livermore Laboratory, pieces of the Berlin wall and World Trade Centers is a perfect place for knowledge hungry people. Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art offers exhibitions of paintings, sculptures and works on paper by the world's most renowned artists. Ranging from Picasso to Warhol, it offers visitors an exceptional opportunity to view legendary works of art. The little old mining town, Bonnie Springs Old Nevada, provides simulated gunfights in the streets, an 1880's melodrama in its Saloon and even a public hanging. The ranch for horse riding is the major attraction. Apart from that there is the essence of old western town with cowboys, cowgirls etc. Ethel's Chocolate Lounge and Cactus Garden offers a free self-guided tour around the candy making factory which proves to be a feast for eyes as well as taste buds. The cactus garden has a breathtaking collection of 300 plant species. For the shopaholics, Forum Shops at Caesars are a great treat for they exhibit 150 boutiques and shops beaming with varieties never seen before. The fountains at Bellagio are a feast to the eyes as they dance with lights illuminating them vibrantly. In the heart of the Downtown, there is the Fremont Street that offers comedy clubs, blues & jazz nightclubs and many more musical entertainment. Two indoor air conditioned galleries contain over 300 interactive exhibits that tell the story of Las Vegas past, present and future and introduce a menagerie of the live bats, foxes, snakes, spiders and lizards that call the desert home. This place is called Springs Preserve housing eight acre botanical garden. The spewing smoke and the erupting fire 100 feet above water is a treat to the eyes. The volcano at the Mirage is known throughout the world for this spectacular illusion. Added to this, visitors have a treat to the ears owing to the musical entertainment provided by legendary Zakir Hussain and Mickey Hart. Far away from this man made sensations, the natural arid beauty of the Grand Canyon is an overwhelming experience with beautiful landscapes, rocky serenity and the tranquil sunset. Las Vegas is a potpourri of beauty and sensation with a life of its own standing distinct among all others in the world.
