OSAKA is the most unique city in Japan, Located at a latitude of 34°35'46"degrees north and a longitude of 135°23'36"degrees east. Osaka is roughly in the middle of Japan (about 500km of the west in Tokyo) for 1400 years, Osaka has been a gathering place. The city has long conducted business not only nationwide but also with China and the Korean Peninsula, playing an important role as a centre of trade and cultural exchange. The Osaka regions continued to play an important role in Japan's development. Osaka's development into a major city began in the mid-sixteenth century, a time of great social instability and frequent internal warfare. Local feudal lords acted autonomously, unrestrained by a weak central government.
