

Critical Care 2020

Webinar on Critical Care and Emergency Medicine

Date
December 14, 2020

Critical Care 2020

Webinar on Critical care and Emergency Medicine December 14,2020 07:00 PM (GMT+4)
07:00 - 07:20	The Dunning-Kruger Effect and its meaning at critical care and emergencies. Evangelia Michailidou , Hippokration General Hospital, Greece
07:20 - 07:40	Drug Repurposing in PDE3-inhibitors; good drug wrong indication Jan Beute , Breakthrough Medical Research, Netherlands
07:40-08:00	Pulmonary function tests of post COVID patients hospitalized in a tertiary academic hospital in Belgium Hanneke Kwakkel-van Erp , University of Antwerp, Belgium
08:00 - 08:20	Non-invasive ventilatory support versus high-flow oxygen therapy in a patient with mild and moderate ARDS hypoxemia in time of pandemic. Aurio Fajardo Campoverde , Critic Patient Unit, Chile.
08:20 - 08:40	Severe dynamic hyperinflation during mechanical ventilation in asthma and COPD; the role of neurally adjusted ventilatory assist (NAVA).. Emiel Boon , Nij Smellinghe Hospital, Netherlands.
08:40 - 09:00	Theatre handover of surgical patients to ITU/PACU- an audit Sindhu Sapru , Northwick park hospital, UK.
09:00 - 10:20	Tools of response in front of difficulties in airways management in a Covid patient in Emergency Room and Emergency Mobile Service. Xavier JOYEUX , University Hospital St Luc, Belgium.
10:20 -10:40	Potential of lung recruitability and PEEP titration in severe ARDS and SARS-Cov-2: A bedside approach for Open-lung Strategy. Aqeel J. Almayouf , Qatif Central Hospital, Saudi Arabia
10:40 - 11:00	Electronic referral system for critical care - A patient safety and quality improvement project Prashant Khadanga , Northwick Park Hospital, UK.
POSTER PRESENTATION
11:00 - 11:30	Airway management during cardiac arrest: A retrospective audit Prashant Khadanga, Vasant Patil , Northwick Park Hospital, UK.